

About Our Grants Team

Since 2002, Ashley|Rountree and Associates has served as the region's leading solutions provider for nonprofit organizations' unique needs and challenges. We proudly collaborate with our client partners to build their capabilities from within, empower them to achieve their missions, and lay the groundwork for a sustainable future.

Our grants professionals bring decades of nonprofit knowledge and experience. We can provide as-needed or ongoing grant writing and support, letters of intent and full proposals, review and editing of organizations' supporting materials, and guidance on all aspects of grant-related work, such as grants reporting and administration.

Grants Services

Research: Ashley|Rountree's dedicated grants researcher works with you to gather information and develop a comprehensive prospective funder list with deadlines, eligibility requirements, and contact information.

Writing/editing: Our grants professionals bring decades of knowledge and experience with nonprofits in Kentuckiana and beyond. With 12 dedicated contractors, we have the capacity to provide ongoing grant writing and support and provide letters of intent and full proposals.

Grants administration: Our grants team can also offer guidance on all other aspects of grant-related work, such as grants administration, a crucial component to ensure compliance with funder requirements, including reporting and acknowledgements.

Return on Investment

A full search (30 hours) is $3,000.

The hourly rate for grants research is $100/hr.

Grant writing and administration is billed at $100/hr. for foundation and corporate grants and $125/hr. for government grants (includes local, state, and federal).

By comparison, the median salary for a grant writer in Louisville, KY is $70,435.